

The following appeared in the January 2006 issue of San Diego Magazine.

50 People to Watch

By Thomas K. Arnold, Julia Beeson, Ron Donoho and Margie Farnsworth

January 2006

Gil Cabrera

A business litigator with Cooley Godward LLP, 33- year-old Cabrera is on the trial teams for a pair of highprofile cases headed to the courts in 2006. He will represent the country's largest managed-care companies in a case versus doctors seeking $12 billion. He'll also defend Gateway in a trial in which the computer manufacturer is being sued for $200 million for breach of contract. Last year, then-mayor Dick Murphy appointed Cabrera to the city's Ethics Commission. As one of five commissioners, he's helping to overhaul lobbying ordinances for the city of San Diego.